Product Description

Light Source ND YAG Solid Laser Fractional Laser Machine Advanced Technology

Product Description:

The DPL Laser Machine features two wave lengths, 1064nm and 532nm, which can be adjusted to meet the specific needs of each patient. The 1064nm wavelength is ideal for treating deeper skin layers, while the 532nm wavelength is perfect for treating superficial layers.

With a maximum energy of 2000M, the DPL Laser Machine is capable of delivering high-intensity laser pulses that penetrate deep into the skin. This allows for effective treatment of even the most stubborn skin conditions. Additionally, the machine's energy density is  $\leq 0.6$  J/cm<sup>2</sup>, ensuring safe and comfortable treatment for all patients.

The DPL Laser Machine is also effective in fractional infrared laser skin tightening. This treatment is ideal for individuals who are looking to improve the overall texture and tone of their skin. The machine's advanced technology allows for precise and controlled delivery of laser energy, resulting in smoother, firmer, and more youthful-looking skin.

In conclusion, the DPL Laser Machine is a versatile and effective laser skin rejuvenation machine that is capable of treating a wide range of skin conditions. Whether you are looking to reduce the appearance of fine lines and wrinkles or improve the overall texture and tone of your skin, the DPL Laser Machine is the perfect solution.

755NM/1064NM ALEXANDRITE LASER Hair Removal Machine

Applications:

One of the key features of the LZR P6 is its fractional infrared laser skin tightening capabilities. This technology uses a series of tiny laser beams to penetrate the skin and stimulate collagen production, resulting in firmer, tighter skin. This makes the LZR P6 ideal for use in a variety of skin tightening and anti-aging applications, including facial rejuvenation, body contouring, and cellulite reduction.

In addition to its fractional laser capabilities, the LZR P6 is also a highly versatile aesthetic laser machine. With its adjustable spot size of 2-10 mm and dual wavelength options of 1064nm and 532nm, the LZR P6 can be customized to meet the needs of virtually any patient or application. Its maximum energy of 2000M and aiming beam with diode 655 nm (red), adjustable off/on, ensures precise and accurate treatment delivery.

The LZR P6 is made in China Guangzhou with the highest quality materials and construction, ensuring that it is both durable and reliable. Its easy-to-use interface and intuitive controls make it simple to operate, even for novice users. Whether you are a seasoned aesthetic professional or just starting out, the LZR P6 is the perfect choice for anyone who wants to offer their patients the best possible results. Overall, the LZR P6 Picosecond Laser Machine is an excellent choice for anyone looking for a high-quality, versatile, and effective aesthetic laser machine. With its fractional infrared laser skin tightening capabilities, customizable settings, and easy-to-use interface, the LZR P6 is sure to meet the needs of even the most demanding aesthetic practices.
